

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Johnson's Wedding.—The wedding of Miss Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson, to Mr. L. E. Kautz, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kautz, took place at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, Nov. 10, at the home of Mrs. Kautz, 1037 Tenth street, Moline. The wedding was a morning home ceremony to be solemnized the latter part of November. Mr. Kautz is employed with Hickey Brothers in Chicago.

Miss Johnson was the honoree at the wedding, a series of prenuptial photographs for her at a "pretty" miscellaneous shower given for her last evening by Miss Mary Ellen Connell at her home, 4502 Seventh avenue. The guests were 10 intimate girl friends, members of the S. E. club, of which Miss Johnson is a member. The evening hours were spent in playing hearts, and the favor for high score was awarded to Miss Edith Louder.

At 10:30 a. m. a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room. The table centerpiece was a bouquet of pink and white roses, and the pink and white colors, the chosen wedding colors, were attractively carried out in the place cards, individual favors, etc. Miss Johnson was seated at the head of the table, and at the conclusion of the repast she was requested to open the doors of the buffet which stood immediately in back of her. On opening the doors, pink and white curtains were disclosed, and upon pushing these aside, there was a pile of pretty miscellaneous gifts, wrapped in the colors.

Miss Agatha Pederson will entertain Monday evening at her home, 4435 Tenth avenue, for the bride-to-be.

Debut for Little Shop.—The Fort Armstrong chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is anxious that anyone in the community having articles for the Little Shop, which the chapter is to sponsor tomorrow and Thursday in the dining room of the Colonial hotel, should notify Mrs. Frank Mixer, chairman of the committee for collection. The shop will be open for business at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and will close at 9 o'clock in the evening. It is desired that the articles be ready by Tuesday. Fort Armstrong chapter depends on this means to secure funds to carry on its educational and charitable work, and it will appreciate a hearty response from its friends. Shoes, a large variety of men's, women's and children's clothing, records, furniture, china, kitchenware, jewelry, lamps, books, magazines and a washing machine are among the articles to be on sale.

Miss Clara Whitman, regent of the Fort Armstrong chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has appointed as the general committee in charge of the Little Shop, Mrs. Frank Bahrman, chairman; Mrs. B. O. Connelly and Mrs. W. J. Sweeney. Members of the various committees are, extremely pleased over the large assortment of articles that have been turned in to the shop.

Music Lovers' Program.—"American Indian Music" will form the program of the Music Lovers' club for its meeting tomorrow, with Mrs. Herman Staak of 1115 Busholme street, Davenport. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. J. Ross Lee and Miss Etta Kruse.

Annual Aid Bazaar Wednesday.—The ladies aid society of the Second Christian church will hold its annual bazaar at the church tomorrow afternoon and evening, 11:30 a. m. to 10 p. m. at which all kinds of fancy goods as well as useful articles will be sold and to be erected, and ice cream, cake and coffee will be served during the afternoon hours. At 6 o'clock a penny supper will be served.

First Studio Tea of Season.—Saturday afternoon in the Art League studios, the first of the season's series of studio teas was given under the auspices of the Tri-City Art League, with Miss Elizabeth Putnam, president, as hostess of the day.

The affair was charming in its informality, and friends and members of the league visited over their tea cups, later viewing the exhibits of the studio pupils.

Assisting Miss Putnam were Mrs. Ben T. Cable of Rock Island, Mrs. George N. Peck of Moline, and the Misses Roberta Hostetter and Edna Roberson of Davenport.

A most attractive setting, with brilliantly colored autumn leaves and berries in their unique holders, lighted tapers, and ray table covers made a most effective setting for the affair.

Postnuptial for Mrs. Taylor.—Mrs. Lucie Chapman entertained a company of 12 young women at her home, 517 Forty-second street, in a postnuptial courtesy for Mrs. Fred Taylor, nee Miss Margaret Van Dale of Moline. Mrs. Taylor was a bride of Oct. 14.

Home decorations were in the bridal colors, pink and green. Bassel roses being the flower of the hour. Games occupied the evening hours, Miss Emma Van Dale and Miss Gladys Struve of Moline taking the prizes. A delicious three course dinner was served in the dining room. A white wicker basket filled with roses with a large butterfly bow of pink and green tulle on the handle formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Taylor was presented with a number of handsome gifts of cut glass and linen. Piano music also added to the enjoyable evening.

Edison P. T. A. to Meet.—The regular meeting of the Edison Post-Teachers' association will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon at the school. A large attendance of mothers is desired. An entertaining program is promised for the afternoon.

Entertainers on Birthday.—Miss Lucille Eckermann entertained a company of girl friends Saturday afternoon in honor of her 14th birthday anniversary. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with games and music after which lunch was served. Miss Eckermann was the recipient of many nice gifts. Those present were the Misses Irene Zentgraf, Rosalie Brothman, Anna Campbell, Ada Ritz, Gladys Ritz, Mildred Turnbaugh, Maleta Lage, Teresa Poter, Beulah Hamra, Inez Campbell, Mary Burton and Viola Busby.

Give Surprise Party.—A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Andrews, 844 Twenty-first street, Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. Andrews' birthday anniversary. The guests assembled during the temporary absence of Mr. Andrews and upon his return the surprise was complete. The early hours of the evening were spent with games, prizes going to Mrs. Charles and Mr. Long. A program of musical numbers was enjoyed. Mr. Erickson played violin numbers, Miss Geraldine Andrews gave several piano numbers and a vocal solo, Harry Starr gave a monologue and Ed Stuhler sang a number of comic songs. At 10 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served, covers being laid for 20 and during the supper Mr. Andrews was presented with a beautifully engraved watch chain with a pendant knife attached by O. Mae, on behalf of the guests. Dancing was enjoyed after the supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Long, Harry Long, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starr, Mr. and Mrs. O. Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stuhler, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Manuels and Mr. and Mrs. Charles.

Christian Endeavor Meeting.—The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Central Presbyterian church was held last evening at the church. During the business session, a committee was appointed to nominate officers for the society for the coming year. After the business meeting refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed.

Membership Committee to Meet.—Rock Island women who anticipate membership in the Rock Island Woman's club have an opportunity to be taken in at the next meeting, Nov. 20. The membership committee of which Mrs. C. E. Sharpe is chairman is still receiving applications and will receive them up until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock when they hold a meeting at the Y. W. C. A. The names in by this time will be acted upon by the club board at its meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 16. It is requested that the membership fee accompany applications.

Turner Ladies' Card Party.—The Turner Ladies' card party of yesterday afternoon held at the Hotel Harms, was a decided success. Prizes in the games of 500 went to Mrs. William Ehlers, first; Miss Lucinda Boncher, second; Mrs. R. Moore, third; Mrs. Klingebell, fourth, and Mrs. Simonson, fifth. Cinch prizes went to Mrs. Von Bergen, first; Mrs. Louisa Bertelson, second, and Mrs. Moosmann all-cut. Refreshments were served at the group tables. Another of the series is planned for the near future.

City Welfare Department.—The November meeting of the city welfare department of the Rock Island Woman's club will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the parlors of the Masonic temple. An invitation is extended to every member of the Woman's club to become affiliated with this department, and all are asked to enjoy the program arranged for this meeting. Miss Marjorie Sala will furnish the musical numbers, and T. A. Murphy is the speaker for the afternoon. His talk will be on the subject, "Confidential Exchange."

To Wed Armistice Day.—Miss Mary Molyneux, whose engagement to Guy B. Bacon of New York, was recently announced, has chosen Thursday, Nov. 11, Armistice day, for her marriage.

The wedding will be a home ceremony of the evening, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. F. Molyneux, 723 East Rusholme street, Davenport. Rev. C. J. Donohue, pastor of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, to read the marriage service.

It will be at 6 o'clock as a quiet family affair with only immediate relatives as guests, and following the supper Mr. Bacon and his bride leave on an extended trip to California where they will visit relatives in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Stops will be made in Denver and Salt Lake City enroute to the coast.

The new home will be in Rockville Center, Long Island, after Jan. 1.

Miss Molyneux is one of the popular girls of St. Paul's parish, and while she is being showered with good wishes in anticipation of the coming wedding, there is some regret that her marriage will take her from the city.

Community Health Week Program.—Health week which is to be observed under the direction of the Rock Island and Davenport Y. W. C. A.'s began yesterday morning with a combined staff meeting of the Rock Island and Davenport Y. W. C. A. staffs, and the staff of the Land-a-Hand, at the Davenport Y. W. C. A. Dr. Lenna I. Means and Miss Jane Bellows, who have been sent out by the New York City health unit, were both present, and they spoke at the meeting yesterday morning, and outlined and explained their plans for the week. A demonstration of foot work was also given at the meeting. Dr. Means spoke before the Davenport Woman's club on "Better Health" yesterday afternoon.

The slogan of health week, according to Dr. Means, is "Not how well you are, but how much better you may become." "We have adopted a new field of vision," she stated yesterday morning, "and we regard health as a positive factor in life." A large number of Rock Islanders attended the luncheon given at the Davenport Y. W. C. A. this noon, at which health talks were given and demonstrations put on.

Dr. Means and Miss Bellows will speak at the Rock Island for the first time this evening, at the club supper at the Y. W. C. A. when the Rock Island young employed club girls, the Makio, Philo, Owalea and Edgewood Baptist girls, will entertain the Davenport young employed club girls. Supper will be served at 5:30 and at 6:30 Dr. Means and Miss Bellows will speak, and anyone interested is cordially invited to be present at that time to hear the addresses. A moving picture "Foot Poles," showing the effect of shoes on the health will be shown at 7:30. This is the only time that this interesting and instructive reel will be shown in Rock Island.

Wednesday morning at 9:30, Dr. Means and Miss Bellows will speak at the Rock Island high school, and Wednesday afternoon will be observed as Girl Reserve day. There will be an important meeting at the Davenport Y. W. C. A. at 4:30 o'clock, and all grade school Girl Reserves of Rock Island and Davenport and their mothers are invited to attend.

Thursday evening at 6:30, Dr. Means and Miss Bellows will address the Council Girls at the local Y. W. C. A.

Friday is to be observed as Rock Island day. At 2 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Rock Island Y. W. C. A. board of directors. Friday evening there will be a conference in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium, to which all the doctors in the city, and anyone interested in the subject of positive health, are invited to confer with Dr. Means. Dr. Means will address the meeting, speaking on the subject of the necessity of making health a constructive, individual matter, and of giving the laity, as well as the physicians and surgeons of the country, a health attitude.

Mrs. Davis Hostess to Department.—Thirty members of the study department of the Rock Island Woman's club spent a very pleasant afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. T. B. Davis. Yesterday was the regular department day, and Mrs. Davis had invited the members to be her guests.

The discussion of citizenship was led by Mrs. C. L. Thompson, and a very interesting paper on "Eastern United States" was read by Mrs. Davis. She touched on Boston and the industries in the east. Mrs. J. E. Clarkson gave several readings, which closed the afternoon program. The hostess invited the guests to the dining room, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. C. E. Sharpe and Mrs. W. H. Marshall. A large bowl of pink roses graced the center. It was decided to alternate the citizenship lessons with the parliamentary law drills, beginning with the next meeting, on Nov. 22, when Mrs. I. O. Schultze will be the leader. The topic will be "Modern English Drama."

Hold Joint Meeting.—Members of the Ever Ready circle and the Worth White Girls of the First Baptist church, both societies chapters of the World Wide guild, held a joint meeting last evening in the church annex. A banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock. Decorations being laid for 29. The table decorations carried out the color of the guild, royal blue. Royal blue crepe paper was used, and blue candles in crystal holders were placed about the board. Nut dishes also carried out the guild color, and individual favors were tiny stars. The emblem of the guild, in the center of which were placed toasts which were given later in the evening. The following program, consisting of five numbers, for the five points of the star, was given:

Song by the guild.
Convention echoes—Mrs. Emil Johnson.
Vocal duet—The Misses Bernice and Ruth Carville.
Reading—Miss Elizabeth Dahlen.
Songs by the guild.

Mr. Butterworth to Speak.—William Butterworth, president of Deere & Co. will speak at the regular meeting of the Trinity Men's club, to be held this evening at the Trinity parish house. Mr. Butterworth will talk on the subject of his recent trip and of the battlefields of France.

Fernandez-Romany.—Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Ruth Fernandez, daughter of John Bergstrom, 1416 Third-second street, and Edward Remmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Remmy of Marinette, Ohio. The ceremony took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church in Moline. Rev. Campbell Bailey officiating. They were unattended. The bride wore a blue tulle suit with black hat. They will be at home to their friends at Mrs. Third-street avenue to the public and anyone interested in the subject is cordially invited to call at the building any time between the hours of 11:30 and 1:30 o'clock.

Queen Esther Meet.—The regular meeting of the Queen Esther guild of the Memorial Christian church was held last evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Stephenson, 4207 Seventh avenue. About twenty-five members were present and regular business and planning for Christmas giving was transacted. Officers were elected for the guild as follows:

President—Mrs. Grace Cramer.
Vice president—Mrs. Mabel Conrad.
Secretary—Mrs. Cora Edwards.
Treasurer—Miss Julia Barnes.
Financial secretary—Miss May Clark.
Reporter—Mrs. Stella Robinson.
Historian—Mrs. Luella Seward.
The following officers were elected for the Queen Esther class:

Teacher—Mrs. L. Hadaway.
Assistant teacher—Miss Mabel Colbert.
Treasurer—Miss Mabelle Johnson.
Secretary—Mrs. Sylvia Patterson.

Delicious refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed after the business session. Mrs. Grace Herman and Mrs. Hall were assistant hostesses.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 13 at the home of Mrs. Lewis Stafford, 1313 Fourteenth and - 2 half street.

Social Announcements.—The fathers will have charge of the program to be given at the
